Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society Mondale-Quie Essay Contest

The Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society, with the support of the Minnesota Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates and the Civil Litigation Section of the Minnesota State Bar Association, is sponsoring an essay contest that is open to Minnesota high school juniors and seniors. Students have an opportunity receive up to $1,000 in scholarship money as they examine the role of the judiciary in our society.

Mondale-Quie Essay Contest Issue for 2022-23:

The Second Amendment to the United States Constitution states, “A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.” For nearly 200 years, the Second Amendment received little attention. During the second half of the 20th Century, however, debate emerged regarding the government’s ability to regulate gun ownership as a means of controlling violent crime. This debate became more intense after a series of high-profile mass shootings in American schools.

With advancements in technology and changes in society, the application of the Second Amendment has presented new challenges and controversies overtime.

Question to be answered: How can the Second Amendment and Constitution, more generally, be interpreted or amended to protect schools and other communities most affected by gun violence?

Arguments could include:

- Interpreting the Second Amendment to apply only to service in a state militia
- Interpreting the Second Amendment as prohibiting limits on gun possession on public property
- Interpreting the Second Amendment as permitting carrying a concealed weapons
- Interpreting the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution as permitting regulations of guns to the extent necessary to ensure persons are not deprived of life, liberty, and property.

What is the Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society?

The Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society (“MSCHS”) was founded by lawyers, educators, judges, and other legal professionals who have a deep and abiding interest in the history of this State and the profound role that Minnesota's courts have played in that history. Our mission is to collect, preserve, and promote Minnesota's judicial history and to serve the interests of the bench and bar, the academic community, and the general public through educational programs, publications, and support of scholarly research.

Contest Objective

High school juniors and seniors must prepare to engage in everyday civil society where significant issues involving historical and constitutional issues arise; therefore, the Mondale-Quie Essay Contest issue has been developed to:

- Provide high school students with an understanding of the judiciary, including its role in society;
- Engage high school teachers and students in the exploration of the role of the judiciary in their lives; and
- Challenge high school students to strengthen their analytic and writing skills.

Eligibility

Minnesota high school students in grades 11 and 12 who attend a public or private school (including charter and alternative-learning programs) or who are home-schooled in Minnesota are eligible to apply.

ESSAY REQUIREMENTS

ANY ENTRY THAT DOES NOT CONFORM TO ALL OF THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS MAY BE DISQUALIFIED.

Format

- Type essay in English — free from spelling, punctuation, and grammatical errors.
- Use Arial or Times New Roman font, 12-point
- Double-space essay with 1” margins – top, bottom, right, and left.
- Place essay title on first page, top center
- Include your first and last name and page number on all pages, top right.

Length

The essay must be between 750 and 1,250 words. State the number of words used at the end of your essay text, prior to the bibliography or works-cited page.

Word count excludes the bibliography or works-cited page, works cited in footnotes or endnotes, if such are used.

To obtain essay word count without the number of words used in the bibliography or works cited, highlight essay text only, go to computer word-count tool (under tools on computer tool bar). The word-count tool will read only the highlighted words.

Bibliography – Works Cited

A minimum of four books, academic journals, news magazines, newspapers, court cases, summaries of court cases, government documents or publications are required for research on this year's assigned topic. With the exception of the Lesson Plans for Teachers, all of the resource suggestions starting on page 5 are acceptable. You are not required to use, nor are you limited to, the resource suggestions starting on page 5.

A bibliography or works-cited page is required to identify research sources and should follow the Modern Language Association (MLA) guidelines. For more information, refer to the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, 7th edition at Research should include sources that examine more than one side of the issue. General encyclopedias (e.g., Wikipedia, Britannica, Americana, and World Book) are unacceptable resources.

Online databases that index reference books, journals, magazines and newspapers are valid sources and must be cited according to the Modern Language Association's guidelines. See again: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01>.

The bibliography or works-cited page should be on a separate page at the conclusion of the essay.
